The Nautilus Group Authorizes Stock Repurchase Program

VANCOUVER, Wash.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--June 11, 2002--The Nautilus Group, Inc. (NYSE:NLS - News), a leading marketer, developer, and manufacturer of branded health and fitness products, announced today that its Board of Directors has authorized a share buyback program.

The Board of Directors authorized management to repurchase up to $20 million of the Company's common stock in open-market transactions from June 11, 2002 through August 31, 2002, with the terms of the purchases to be determined by management based on market conditions.

For the first quarter of 2002, The Nautilus Group reported net sales of $135.9 million, and net income of $24.0 million. The Company's cash and short-term investments as of March 31, 2002 were $51.0 million.

"Given our expectations of continued sales and earnings growth, we believe our stock is undervalued and that stock repurchases will benefit the company and our shareholders," said Brian Cook, chief executive officer.
